FEDERATED NATIONAL HOLDING COMPANY
REPORTS 2013 FOURTH QUARTER AND FULL YEAR FINANCIAL RESULTS

Sunrise, Florida, February 27, 2014 – Federated National Holding Company (Nasdaq: FNHC) (the “Company”) a Florida-based provider of insurance, today reported results for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2013 (see attached tables).

2013 full year highlights include:

- Full year net income of $12.7 million, which is an increase of $8.4 million, or 195%, compared with net income of $4.3 million in 2012
- Gross written premiums of $243.4 million, which is an increase of $123.9 million, or 104%, compared with the same twelve months the prior year
- Net premiums earned of $104.4 million, which is an increase of $45.0 million, or 76%, compared with the same twelve months the prior year
- Book value increased to $9.95 at December 31, 2013, compared with $8.26 at December 31, 2012, a 21% improvement
- Homeowners’ policy count grew from 61,102 at the start of 2013 to 116,401 at December 31, 2013, or a 91% increase
- We continue to write 100% of our new business on a voluntary basis with our partner agents

Mr. Michael H. Braun, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and President, said, “Our performance in 2013 reflects the effort and momentum that our team has been building on over the past few years. As I mentioned when we reported full year 2012, the actions we have taken to build our brand would position us to accelerate our growth trajectory which is evident in our reported results. Our performance for the year was strong across a majority of our measured metrics, including; gross written premium, net premiums earned, revenue and operating expenses, and as a result, solid earnings performance. Serving our policyholders and agents remains our top priority and has generated significant goodwill in the marketplace. This has resulted in significant policy count and top line growth. Capitalizing on our performance during the past several years, we enter 2014 with significant momentum and the flexibility to make further investments in our business model.”

Forward-Looking Statements /Safe Harbor Statements

Safe harbor statements under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

Statements that are not historical fact are forward-looking statements that are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events and results to differ materially from those discussed herein. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, words such as "anticipate," "believe," "budget," "contemplate," "continue," "could," "envision," "estimate," "expect," "guidance," "indicate," "intend," "may," "might," "plan," "possibly," "potential," "predict," "probably," "pro-forma," "project," "seek," "should," "target," or "will" or the negative thereof or other variations thereon and similar words or phrases or comparable terminology are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements might also include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following:

- Projections of revenues, income, earnings per share, dividends, capital structure or other financial items or measures;
- Descriptions of plans or objectives of management for future operations, insurance products, or services;
- Forecasts of future insurable events, economic performance, liquidity, need for funding and income; and
- Descriptions of assumptions or estimates underlying or relating to any of the foregoing.

The risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, uncertainties related to estimates, assumptions and projections generally; risks related to the nature of the Company's business; the adequacy of its liability for loss and loss adjustment expense; claims experience; weather conditions (including the severity and frequency of storms, hurricanes, tornadoes and hail) and other catastrophe losses; changes in loss trends; court decisions and trends in litigation, ability to obtain regulatory approval applications for requested rate increases or to underwrite in additional jurisdictions, and the timing thereof; inflation and other changes in economic conditions (including changes in interest rates and financial markets); pricing competition and other initiatives by competitors; legislative and regulatory developments; the outcome of litigation pending against the Company, and any settlement thereof; dependence on investment income and the composition of the Company's investment portfolio; insurance agents; ratings by industry services; reliance on key personnel; acts of war and terrorist activities; and other matters described from time to time by the Company in releases and publications, and in periodic reports and other documents filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

In addition, investors should be aware that generally accepted accounting principles prescribe when a company may reserve for particular risks, including claims and litigation exposures. Accordingly, results for a given reporting period could be significantly affected if and when a reserve is established for a contingency. Reported results may therefore appear to be volatile in certain accounting periods.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. We do not undertake any obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.
