Item 8.01. Other Events.

On Friday morning, September 14, 2018, Hurricane Florence made landfall near Wilmington, NC, on as a Category 1 hurricane and then moved slowly into South Carolina as a Tropical Storm. FedNat Holding Company (the “Company”) has two insurance subsidiaries: FedNat Insurance Company (“FedNat”) and Monarch National Insurance Company (“Monarch National”). FedNat writes a small book of homeowners’ insurance in South Carolina, but has no exposure in North Carolina. Monarch National has no exposure to Hurricane Florence as they currently write homeowners’ insurance only in Florida. The Company has deployed the appropriate resources to the affected areas to best serve our policyholders in their time of need.

FedNat currently estimates that its aggregate gross liabilities as a result of Hurricane Florence, which will be paid out in the coming months, will be $4 million based on preliminary post land fall catastrophe model estimates. This estimate is well within our current non-Florida property catastrophe excess of loss first event reinsurance retention of $15 million. Further, any aggregate gross liabilities from Hurricane Florence will be reduced by 50% after taking into account the profit sharing agreement that FedNat has with the nonaffiliated managing general underwriter that writes our non-Florida property business thereby decreasing FedNat's estimated exposure to $2 million.
